

THURSDAY November 24th

10.00–12.00 How to get published in scientific journals and How to publish Open Access

Find out how to increase your chances to publish your articles.

Organised by the University Library

Location: Sal 10, university building, Vasaparken

13.00–15.00 Sustainable Development in a Global Perspective

The environmentalist Stefan Edman will discuss sustainable development in a global context.

Location: Ivan Östholm, Medicinaregatan 13

14.00–15.30 International experience for a successful career?

Find out the importance of international experience for your future career and what opportunities the university provides for working and studying abroad. Among those participating are Volvo Cars and Drivhuset.

Location: Lingsalen, Studenternas Hus, Götabergsgatan 17

16.30–17.30 the Swedish Model in a Global Context

Kjell Kampe, lecturer in cross-cultural communication, will address what it means to be Swedish.

Organised by the Society of International Affairs in Gothenburg (Utrikespolitiska föreningen Göteborg)

Location: Lingsalen, Studenternas Hus, Götabergsgatan 17

17.30–19.30 Language Café

Come practice your language skills and find new friends.

Organised by the Gothenburg International Student Association (GISA)

Location: Studenternas Hus, Götabergsgatan 17

FRIDAY November 25th

10.00–15.30 WATER – THERE IS NO LIVING WITHOUT IT!

TED<sup>x</sup> University of Gothenburg

x = independently organized TED event

Over 10 speakers will hold short innovative speeches all connected to the theme of water. The topics include everything from new wars fought over water, the connection between religion and water to exploring the beauty and challenges of complex ice sculptures.

Location: Auditorium, university building, Vasaparken

Note: The conference will be webcasted online and live at:

- Lilla Hörsalen, Faculty of Arts, Renströmsgatan 6
- Linnésalen, Campus Linné, Seminariegatan 1B

Read more about the registration process and follow the event online at: www.tedxuofg.com

This independent TEDx event is operated under license from TED.

UNIVERSITY OF GOTHENBURG

Follow us online:

www.globalweek.gu.se

#GW11

www.facebook.com/GlobalWeek

UNIVERSITY OF GOTHENBURG

PROGRAMME

Global Week

November, 21–25

Seating is limited. Make sure to register for all events online at www.globalweek.gu.se

MONDAY November 21st

8.00–16.30 Global Forum

Global Forum is the meeting-place in western Sweden for a dialogue about the consequences of globalisation.

THE DAY WILL BE OPENED BY:

Jan Björklund, Minister for Education and Deputy Prime Minister in the Swedish government.

THE MAIN PANEL FOCUSES ON COMPETENCES AND KNOWLEDGE:

Barbara Ischinger, Director for Education, OECD
Charlotte Petri Gornitzka, Director General, Sida
Urban Bäckström, Director General, Svenskt Näringsliv
Wanja Lundby-Wedin, Ordförande, LO

THE AFTERNOON IS DIVIDED INTO SIX DIFFERENT TRACKS INCLUDING AMONG OTHERS:

Innovative solutions for reducing poverty
The Middle East and North Africa

Location: Swedish Exhibition and Congress Centre, Mässans gata

See www.globalforum.nu for more information

13.00–14.30 COP 17 in Durban – What can we expect this time?

Leading international researchers in climate change will discuss conditions for the upcoming climate negotiations in Durban, November 28th to December 9th.

Organised by the Environmental Unit at the University of Gothenburg

Location: Auditorium, university building, Vasaparken

TUESDAY November 22nd

9.00–10.15 External Intervention: What is legitimate, and what is effective?

Professor Paul Collier, author of The Bottom Billion, University of Oxford

Organised by the Gothenburg Centre of Globalisation and Development

Location: Linnésalen, Campus Linné, Seminariegatan 1B

13.00–18.00 Armageddon Averted: Insiders' Reports from the Dissolution of the Soviet Union

Former presidents and heads of state who were directly involved in the dissolution of the Soviet Union reveal what really happened 20 years ago.

THE DISTINGUISHED SPEAKERS INCLUDE AMONG OTHERS:

Prof. Dr Gennady Burbulis - Former Secretary of State of Russian Republic
President Leonid Makarovich Kravchuk – Former President of Ukraine
Prof. Dr Vytautas Landsbergis - Former Head of State of Lithuania
Prof. Dr Stanislav Shushkevich - Former Head of State of Belarus
Ambassador Jan Eliasson – Former Minister of Foreign Affairs of Sweden
Dr Andrzej Olechowski – Former Minister of Foreign Affairs of Poland

Co-organised with the City of Gothenburg

Location: Auditorium Stenhammarsalen, Gothenburg Concert Hall, Götaplatsen 1

Note: The seminar will also be webcasted online and live at:

- Lingsalen A505, Artisten, Faculty of Fine, Applied and Performing Arts, Fågelsången 1
- B3 313, Faculty of Education, Läroverksgatan 15

14.00–15.15 International Interventions and Governance

Professor Anne Orford, University of Melbourne

Organised by the Gothenburg Centre of Globalisation and Development

Location: Malmstensalen, School of Business, Economics and Law, Vasagatan 1

WEDNESDAY November 23rd

9.15–10.30 Failed State Building versus Peace Formation

Professor Oliver Richmond, University of St Andrews

Organised by the Gothenburg Centre of Globalisation and Development

Location: E43, School of Business, Economics and Law, Vasagatan 1

10.00–13.00 Inspirational alumni presentations (In Swedish)

Find out how to start your own international career by listening to alumni who have worked abroad, chaired by Britt-Marie Mattsson.

Location: Lingsalen, Studenternas Hus, Götabergsgatan 17

13.30–16.45 International Symposium on World Values Survey

Find out the latest findings from the 2011 – Round of the World Values Survey in Sweden and the World.

Organised by Associate Professor Staffan I. Lindberg, Research Director for World Values Survey-Sweden

Location: Sal 10, university building, Vasaparken

14.00–15.15 De-Colonizing Global Narratives of Governance

Professor Cristina Rojas, Carleton University

Organised by the Gothenburg Centre of Globalisation and Development

Location: E43, School of Business, Economics and Law, Vasagatan 1

15.00–16.30 The Gothenburg Annual Lecture on Global Collaboration – Thorvald Stoltenberg

Faraway does not exist any longer – how do we meet the consequences involved?

Ambassador Stoltenberg will speak about the recent terrorist attack in Utöya and how terrorist attacks may impact open democratic societies.

The lecture will be opened by Vice-Chancellor Pam Fredman, and concluded by alumna Cecilia Attefors.

Following the lecture there will be a vernissage with art reflecting globalisation in Vasaparken.

Location: Auditorium, university building, Vasaparken